OFFICER TO INSTRUCTOR RATIO

For instruction of the Firearms Qualification Course, it is recommended there be no more than six officers actively engaged on a firearms range for each Commission-certified firearms instructor.

ACTIVELY ENGAGED

Actively engaged is defined in Rule 11B-35.0021(4)(a), F.A.C., as "a officer on the firing range handling a weapon."

FIREARMS QUALIFICATION COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Officers shall, at minimum, be required to demonstrate proficiency at 80% or higher with the type of weapon that the officer carries. The minimum score is calculated at 32 of 40 rounds in the scoring area. The scoring area shall be any hit that is inside or touches the exterior scoring line, for example, 4 and 5 zone of B-21E.
2. Officers shall use the B-21E target or equivalent.
3. The Firearms Qualification Course shall be administered by a currently certified Commission-approved firearms instructor.
4. The Firearms Qualification Course shall be conducted at a Commission-certified training school range, agency range, or a private range.
5. A certified Law Enforcement Officer who fails to demonstrate proficiency skills on the required firearms qualification standard shall not perform the duties of a sworn officer.
6. Any remedial training and subsequent qualification attempts are the responsibility of the employing agency and the officer must meet the firearms qualification standard prior to the officer working in the capacity as a sworn officer.
