

Learning and Performance Symposium 2014: 40 Forward – 14A6001

September 3 – 5, 2014

National Corrections Academy (NCA), Aurora, Colorado

The National Institute of Corrections has been a center of corrections learning for 40 years. The Academy Division invites you to be a part of visioning the next forty years and the role of leadership, innovation and collaboration in our future success! We invite you to be a part of this inaugural gathering!

During this interactive session, we will bring together Learning and Performance professionals to address the most pressing issues facing corrections learning today including:

- Ensuring learning and performance competency development
- Continuing professional development of learning and performance professionals
- Leveraging technology for learning in corrections
- Facilitating Collaborative efforts for collective goals
- Applying research to corrections learning and performance

What Will Occur During the Symposium?

We have many activities planned, including:

- Conducting a comprehensive learning and performance field needs assessment, with input from you and your organization
- Introducing “hot off the press” learning and performance products for your use in training and developing your training staff
- Helping NIC’s Academy Division craft the vision for upcoming field delivery of new products and services
- Creating a nationwide collaborative of adult and juvenile justice corrections and criminal justice learning and performance professionals, united by collectively created goals
- And more!

Who Should Attend

Learning and Performance (staff development and training) professionals from local, state and federal adult and juvenile corrections settings including jails, prisons, community corrections, juvenile detention, juvenile probation and parole, US Probation, Federal Bureau of Prisons, and Pre Trial Services. We also welcome leaders and those that support learning and performance in these agencies!

Specifically – anyone who works in Learning and Performance (corrections and criminal justice staff development and training) including Training Directors, Training Administrators, Training Coordinators, Full-Time Trainers, Part-Time Trainers (Adjunct or Field), and Curriculum Designers regardless of time in role.
